

Help keep the Y strong

More than ever, help is needed to sustain the Y and support those most impacted by COVID-19

Throughout the pandemic, the Y has spearheaded efforts to support our community and those on the front lines of the COVID-19 fight. Upon suspending normal operations in March, we quickly pivoted our staff and facility resources to provide critical support for our community and those most heavily impacted by coronavirus.

As a nonprofit, the YMCA funds its operations from membership and program fees. We raise charitable funds to expand our community outreach and help those in need. The operational revenue helps fuel impactful community efforts.

North Carolina's YMCAs have served as a beacon of hope for our neighbors in need during the pandemic. Now Ys need your help.

Harrison Family YMCA

The Harrison Family YMCA has served our community for generations. We've been here in good times and bad, but COVID-19 is a crisis like no other. With a significant decline in operational revenue and unable to fully reopen, our Y is hurting.

$63,000 / Month
Operational Loss

53% of Workforce
Furloughed or Cut
(Full-time equivalents)

Across North Carolina

A recent New York Times article says that nonprofit service organizations like the Y are providing a lifeline to the community's most vulnerable during the pandemic, but now find themselves in financial jeopardy.

$4.5 M / Month
Operational Loss

65% of Workforce
Furloughed or Cut
(Full-time equivalents)

FOOD FOR ALL
ymcawnc.org/nutrition

